An Evensong with a difference? Sunday 15th September 6pm

When Choral Evensong returns after the summer break, the September service will be a one-off exploration of West Gallery music. Stuart Robinson writes: This delightful tradition which flourished during the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries was a reaction against the comparative formality of choral services, and takes its name from the fact that singers and instrumentalists would occupy the west gallery in a church. There was such a gallery in St John's until the 19th century! It's a style deeply rooted in the West country – in fact the setting of the Nunc Dimittis is based on a manuscript in the Dorset County Museum. There will be a workshop for singers and players and 4pm followed by tea followed by the service itself. If you want to sing, please contact me. Or just turn up and be part of the congregation!

The Tenth Sunday after Trinity

The Collect

Let your merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of your humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions make them to ask such things as shall please you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Old Testament Reading: Isaiah 58: 9b-14

If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday.

The LORD will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail. Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in.

If you refrain from trampling the sabbath, from pursuing your own interests on my holy day; if you call the sabbath a delight and the holy day of the LORD honourable; if you honour it, not going your own ways, serving your own interests, or pursuing your own affairs; then you shall take delight in the LORD, and I will make you ride upon the heights of the earth; I will feed you with the heritage of your ancestor Jacob, for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

The Gospel: Luke 13: 10-17

Now Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, 'Woman, you are set free from your ailment.' When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, 'There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day.' But the Lord answered him and said, 'You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?' When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

Barnabas House

Barnabas House is no longer a women's refuge, but part of the wider Alabaré charity. It is no longer looking for the kind of donations we have been giving, so we shall not in future be putting out the collection box on Sundays. We shall continue to support Alabaré along with various other charities. Thank you to all who have donated over the years!

We rejoice with William Mogridge and Harriet Walker, married in St John's yesterday. Please pray for them as they begin their married life together.
