The Eighteenth Sunday after Trinity

The Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us your gift of faith that, forsaking what lies behind and reaching out to that which is before, we may run the way of your commandments and win the crown of everlasting joy; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Old Testament Reading: Genesis 32.22-31

The same night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, 'Let me go, for the day is breaking.' But Jacob said, 'I will not let you go, unless you bless me.' So he said to him, 'What is your name?' And he said, 'Jacob.' Then the man said, 'You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed.' Then Jacob asked him, 'Please tell me your name.' But he said, 'Why is it that you ask my name?' And there he blessed him. So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, 'For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved.' The sun rose upon him as he passed Peniel, limping because of his hip.

Psalm 121

I lift up my / eyes • to the / hills: from / where • is my / help to / come?

My help / comes • from the / Lord: the / maker of / heaven and / earth.

He will not suffer your / foot to / stumble: he who watches / over you / will not / sleep.

Behold, he who keeps / watch • over / Israel: shall / neither / slumber nor / sleep.

The Lord himself / watches / over you: the Lord is your / shade at / your right / hand,

So that the sun shall not / strike you by / day: nei/ther the / moon by / night.

The Lord shall keep you / from all / evil; it is / he • who shall / keep your / soul.

The Lord shall keep watch over your going out and your / coming / in: from this time / forth for / ever/ more.

Glory to the Father and / to the / Son: and / to the / Holy / Spirit.

As it was in the be/ginning is / now: and shall be for / ever, / A – / men.

The Gospel: Luke 18.1-8

Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. He said, 'In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, "Grant me justice against my opponent." For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, "Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming." ' And the Lord said, 'Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?'

Children's workshop – can you help?

For our October workshop we need: Small pumpkins · Cooking ingredients (SR flour, dairy free spread, sugar and lots of icing sugar) · Old cereal boxes (un-squished!)

And if you can spare a bit of cash we'd like to buy: Glass paints · Sausages and chips.

Donations to Jo Naish 01747 871820 or revdjoannanaish@gmail.com before October 28th please.

All Souls – Commemoration of the Departed

The annual All Souls service for the Benefice will be held at 3.00 pm on Sunday 3 November. We shall be remembering those from the area who have died during the past year; if there are others whom you would like to have remembered, please add their name to the list by the North Door. All are very welcome to the service

Confirmation

We are delighted that five people from the Nadder Valley Benefice are to be confirmed at Salisbury Cathedral on Saturday 9 November at 6.30pm: Mark Bender, Louisa Campbell, Kerra Taylor and Jenna Taylor from St John's Tisbury and Karen Plumbley-Jones from St John's Hindon. Please pray for them as they prepare for this important step in their Christian journey.
