The Third Sunday of Epiphany

The Collect

Almighty God, whose Son revealed in signs and miracles the wonder of your saving presence, renew your people with your heavenly grace, and in all our weakness sustain us by your mighty power; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit one God, now and for ever, Amen.

The Old Testament Reading: Isaiah 62: 1- 5

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her vindication shines out like the dawn, and her salvation like a burning torch. The nations shall see your vindication, and all the kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the LORD will give. You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. You shall no more be termed Forsaken, and your land shall no more be termed Desolate; but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her, and your land Married; for the LORD delights in you, and your land shall be married. For as a young man marries a young woman, so shall your builder marry you, and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you.

The Gospel: John 2: 1- 11

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.' And Jesus said to her, 'Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come.' His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.' Now standing there were six stone water-jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, 'Fill the jars with water.' And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, 'Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.' So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, 'Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.' Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

A collection for the ministry and upkeep of this church is received at all services. Envelopes are provided in the pews if you are able to gift aid your donation. To discuss regular giving please speak to Paul Naish (870731/07587 072900) or e mail sjtgiftaid@gmail.com Cheques should be made payable to Tisbury Parochial Church Council. Online giving: You can make an on line donation through our website www.tisburyparishchurch.org/donation.

New altar

Sam Wiggs, Chairman of the Development Committee writes: The faculty to allow the installation of the new oak altar and moving the stone altar to the Lady Chapel has just been granted. We don't yet know when Matthew Burt will be able to make the altar but it is very exciting news and a great step forward.

Tisbury's afternoon tea

On your own? Then, come along for afternoon tea and chat on Wednesday 6th February from 3pm to 4.30pm in the Hinton Hall. There will be cream tea and CAKE and it's free. Queries ? Phone Kate 871559.

Film Night

The next film on February 8th at the Nadder Centre will be KING OF THIEVES starring Michael Caine, Brian Reader, Michael Gambon and Tom Courtenay amongst others. Quite a cast! Tickets as usual from Kate Good Pottery (closed on Mondays) price £6 (01747 870367).

The Electoral Roll – complete revision

This year there has to be a complete revision of the church's electoral roll. Letters will be distributed to all those currently on the roll. If this is you please fill in the form and return to the Electoral Roll Officer at the Parish Office. It costs nothing to join but if your name is on the roll, you have the power to vote for members of the Parochial Church Council.
