The Collect for the Tenth Sunday after Trinity

Let your merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of your humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions make them to ask such things as shall please you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Reading: I Kings 19.4-8

Elijah went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a solitary broom tree. He asked that he might die: 'It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life, for I am no better than my ancestors.' Then he lay down under the broom tree and fell asleep. Suddenly an angel touched him and said to him, 'Get up and eat.' He looked, and there at his head was a cake baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank, and lay down again. The angel of the LORD came a second time, touched him, and said, 'Get up and eat, otherwise the journey will be too much for you.' He got up, and ate and drank; then he went in the strength of that food for forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God.

The Gospel: John 6.35,41-51

Jesus said to them, 'I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.

Then the Jews began to complain about him because he said, 'I am the bread that came down from heaven.' They were saying, 'Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, "I have come down from heaven"?' Jesus answered them, 'Do not complain among yourselves. No one can come to me unless drawn by the Father who sent me; and I will raise that person up on the last day. It is written in the prophets, "And they shall all be taught by God." Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.'

For your prayers

Please pray for all refugees, asking that they would be treated with compassion in their host countries. In our linked diocese of Cuebiet, South Sudan, we are asked to pray that at a time of acute shortages, there may be sufficient food supplies to avoid starvation in Cuebiet.

Thank you

... to all who took part in our sponsored walk on Saturday and to all who have made a donation. This valuable contribution to the funding of the work of our church is greatly appreciated. If anyone else would like to donate, you can do so via the Parish Administrator (details overleaf).

Parish Office

The Parish Office has been closed for over a year, due to the Covid-19 situation. During this time, people have been able to contact the Parish Administrator via her home telephone number or the parish office email address. This seems to have worked well, but it has been decided to have the Parish Office open again on Friday mornings from 9.30 to 11.00am during August and September. The Parish Administrator will be in the office at this time.

Can you help?

We would love to have more volunteers (including chaps!) to help with refreshments after the 9.30 service. This would be approx. once a month. Do contact Trish if you are interested: 01747 871108 or billandtrish9@gmail.com

Giving to the church

Thank you very much to those who continue to give regularly to the church. If you haven't committed to regular giving, why not consider joining the Parish Giving Scheme? If you go to www.parishgiving.org.uk you can get onto the secure website and set up a login and password. This will enable you set up your own direct debit (and sign up for gift aid if applicable). If you require help or advice on giving, please contact Paul Naish, email sjgiftaid@gmail.com tel 01747 870731. Cheques are payable to Tisbury PCC.
