Walking with Jesus and His Friends

Canon Ann Philp is offering Quiet Days at Sarum College during Holy Week. Over three days we will accompany Jesus alongside his friends as they accompany him to the cross and ask 'Where do we find ourselves on this journey?' We will enter into the experience through Bible study and art, music and poetry. Each day will open with prayer and Bible Study at 10am (day participants arrive from 9.30am). There will be reflections at 12pm and 2pm. Tea will be available from 3.30pm and we will end with a short reflection at 4pm. Further details available on the Sarum College website www.sarum.ac.uk or Canon Ann Philp 01722 555178.

Pilgrimage through Holy Week 2018

As you may remember, in previous years I have undertaken a personal, yet not private, pilgrimage through the final weeks and days of Lent as we in the Nadder valley prepare for Good Friday and Easter.

In 2016 there were silent services in all our churches. Last year, I visited almost every church for a service of Compline. This year the itinerary will be a little different again.

Revd. Jo Naish will join me as we celebrate services across the Benefice, and we will be walking between a number of the churches.

Would you like to join us? I hope so, all would be very welcome, including well behaved dogs!

This is the itinerary, which will take in churches' regular times for weekday worship.

Tisbury French Farmers' Market

By arrangement with Tisbury Parish Council and Tisbury Business Association – and for the first time in Tisbury – France at Home, an experienced French travelling market will be bringing first class produce and their excellent service to Tisbury High Street.

Saturday 24th March, from 9.00 am

Make a day of it and enjoy a French breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Stalls to choose from offer a wide selection of goods – wonderful French food, Provençal soaps, vintage music CD's, bags and purses, basket ware, scarves, hats and so much more.

The traders from 'France at Home' cross the Channel every week from France to hold their popular French Markets in England. Don't miss this opportunity to come and say 'bonjour'.

(NB Tisbury High St will be closed for the day. Diversions will be signposted from The Beckford, via Newtown and Hatch Lane)

PARKING IS FREE IN TISBURY

Tisbury Coffee Club

This warm and friendly Coffee Club is open every fortnight to greet all who want to meet and feel warmly welcomed by other members of this very neighbourly social event.

You care for someone; you live on your own or are new to this area? Every reason is a good one to come to our fun and active Coffee Club.

There are no joining fees.

This is a really good place to come to, to spend one hour or so, and more if you are the kind of kind person who cares about our community.

The principal aims of this club are numerous:

- Help the community
- Have a good time
- Meet people
- Make friends
- Catch up with old friends
- Hear of good cooking recipes

– Hear the latest gossips

We have access to this brand new and superb Nadder Centre. It is warm, well lit and very accessible. It has all the conveniences one would expect from such a modern place, a superb centre offered to all of us by the Wiltshire Council.

We meet every 14 days, always on a Monday, from 10.30 AM till 12 noon.

And there is (very good) coffee and cake! You wouldn't want to miss this, would you?
