President: The Revd Juliette Hulme.

Church open for private prayer – Sundays 4-6pm

Please follow the directions of those stewarding, and on the notices at the church

Tuesday 11th August 10.30 am-12 noon Children's Holiday Workshop

'Let us give thanks!' Do join us for a morning of fantastic activities in worship, craft, story, junk modelling and more, to be held in the churchyard. Children will need to be accompanied by a responsible adult throughout.

Booking is essential: revdjoannanaish@gmail.com

A request to all: In order to ensure everyone's safety, we ask that, if you wish to access the River Nadder/Stubbles while the workshop is in progress, you walk along Church Street and down Glove Lane rather than across the churchyard. Many thanks!

If you need support

As always, the Revd Juliette Hulme (Parish Priest) is available to give pastoral and spiritual support (see below)

The Collect for the Eighth Sunday after Trinity

Almighty Lord and everlasting God, we beseech you to direct, sanctify and govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of your laws and the works of your commandments; that through your most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Gospel: Matthew 14. 13-21

Now when Jesus heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, 'This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves.' Jesus said to them, 'They need not go away; you give them something to eat.' They replied, 'We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish.' And he said, 'Bring them here to me.' Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

First hymn: Jesus calls us here to meet him

1. Jesus calls us here to meet him as through word and song and prayer
we affirm God's promised presence
where his people live and care.
Praise the God who keeps his promise;
praise the Son who calls us friends;
praise the Spirit who, among us,
to our hopes and fears attends.

2. Jesus calls us to confess him
Word of Life and Lord of All,
sharer of our flesh and frailness
saving all who fail or fall.
Tell his holy human story;
tell his tales that all may hear;
tell the world that Christ in glory came to earth to meet us here.

3. Jesus calls us to each other,
vastly different though we are;
creed and colour, race and gender neither limit nor debar.
Join the hand of friend and stranger;
join the hands of age and youth;
join the faithful and the doubter
in their common search for truth.

4. Jesus calls us to his table
rooted firm in time and space,
where the church in earth and heaven
finds a common meeting place.
Share the bread and wine, his body;
share the love of which we sing;
share the feast for saints and sinners
hosted by our Lord and King.

Thank you very much to those who continued to give regularly to the church by direct debit or standing order, and to those who made donations during Lockdown. Although we were not able to worship in the church for some months, expenditure continued during this period. If you normally give by other means, you might like to consider making a donation by cheque (payable to Tisbury PCC) or by bank transfer (details from the Parish Administrator). Or why not consider joining the Parish Giving Scheme or setting up a standing order? Details from Paul Naish, 01747 870731 / 07587 072900, email sitgiftaid@gmail.com
