St Luke the Evangelist

The Collect

Almighty God, you called Luke the physician, whose praise is in the gospel, to be an evangelist and physician of the soul: by the grace of the Spirit and through the wholesome medicine of the gospel, give your Church the same love and power to heal; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Gospel: Luke 10.1-9

After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. He said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this house!' And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.'

Giving to the church

Thank you very much to those who continue to give regularly to the church. If you haven't committed to regular giving, why not consider joining the Parish Giving Scheme or setting up a standing order? Details from Paul Naish, email sjgiftaid@gmail.com tel 01747 870731 / 07587 072900. Our income dropped significantly during lockdown, while expenses continued; any donations would be very welcome.

Wednesday 28 October at 7.00pm Annual Meetings

The Annual Meeting of Parishioners and the Annual Parochial Church Meeting, postponed from March, will be held on 28 October at 7.00pm in the church. All are welcome to the first of the two meetings, for the election of Churchwardens, but only members of the Church Electoral Roll may attend the Annual Parochial Church Meeting. Do please come!

Parochial Church Council

Would you be interested in having a say in matters concerning the church, and in shaping its future direction? If so, you might like to consider becoming a member of the PCC. You need to be a member of the Church Electoral Roll. For more information, please talk to Juliette, or to one of the Churchwardens, or to Judy Anderson, Parish Administrator. Elections are held at the APCM (see above).

Thursday 29 October at 4.30pm A Celebration of Light

Join the Nadder Valley Holiday Workshop team at St Mary's, Dinton, for an activity-packed celebration of light as we near All Hallows' Eve. During the informal worship, we will be using craft, art, story, invention and science-y stuff to explore how God is our light. Expect fun, makes and surprises as we explore together. Because of Covid restrictions our space is limited – reserve your places NOW and email revdjoannanaish@gmail.com If restrictions increase – don't worry, we'll still be present on Zoom and have activity packs for you to collect.

Thank you from Leila

The Revd Leila Mather writes: Thank you all so much for your beautiful ordination gift of a set for the visitation of the sick. It is an immensely generous gift and one which will prove vital throughout the rest of my life of ministry. I'm not sure 'thinking of you as I use it' is the right thing to do, given the context in which it will be used, but it will certainly remind me of you all as those who encouraged and upheld me at the very start of both my Christian faith and my vocational journey. I miss you all lots but am enjoying the work that God has called me to in similarly rural pastures in Dorset! With all my love God bless Leila
