

Church of St John the Baptist, Tisbury

reflecting Jesus Christ

Sunday 1st November

All Saints / All Souls

Today's services

9.30am Family Service

Led by the Revd Juliette Hulme

3.00pm All Souls Commemoration

Led by the Revd Juliette Hulme

Preacher: The Revd Mark Hayter

We give thanks for those dear to us who are no longer with us. All those remembered by name last year will be remembered again at this service; if you wish to add anyone, please email details to the parish office on tisburyparishchurch@gmail.com by 12 noon today.

The Revd Juliette Hulme is also leading a service at All Saints Church, Fonthill Bishop, at 5pm today.

This week

Wednesday at 10.00am Holy Communion St Andrew's Chapel

There have been some changes to our weekday services online; for details, please see our website.

The church is open for private prayer on Sundays between 5.00 and 6.00pm and on Wednesdays from 9.45am to 5.00pm. Please follow the directions on the notices at the church.

Next Sunday, 8th November

Remembrance Sunday

8.00am Holy Communion (BCP) Fonthill Bishop

President: The Revd Joanna Naish

9.30am Parish Communion with Remembrance Commemoration

President and Preacher: The Revd Juliette Hulme

Romans 8.34-39; John 15.12-17

Due to Covid-19 restrictions, sadly it is not possible to hold the usual 2.45 Act of Remembrance at the War Memorial or the service at St John's which traditionally follows. Instead, it is suggested that individuals/groups who wish to lay their wreaths and pay their respects to the fallen might come down to the memorial at a time that best suits them during the day on Sunday 8th November or, indeed, on Wednesday 11th November when a silence will be observed at the memorial at 11.00.

Please pray ...

Please pray for our linked diocese of Cueibet, South Sudan, and especially for those who carry scars, both physical and mental, from many years of war within their country.

Please pray for those in our community who grieve for loved ones.

If you need support

As always, the Revd Juliette Hulme (Parish Priest) is available to give pastoral and spiritual support

All Saints

The Collect

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: grant us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Reading: Matthew 5.1-12

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

'Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.'

All Souls

The Collect

Eternal God, our maker and redeemer, grant us, with all the faithful departed, the sure benefits of your Son's saving passion and glorious resurrection that, in the last day, when you gather up all things in Christ, we may with them enjoy the fullness of your promises; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Reading: Wisdom 3.1-9

But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be a disaster, and their going from us to be their destruction; but they are at peace. For though in the sight of others they were punished, their hope is full of immortality. Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good, because God tested them and found them worthy of himself; like gold in the furnace he tried them, and like a sacrificial burnt-offering he accepted them. In the time of their visitation they will shine forth, and will run like sparks through the stubble. They will govern nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them for ever. Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones, and he watches over his elect.

The Second Reading: John 5.19-25

Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, the Son can do nothing on his own, but only what he sees the Father doing; for whatever the Father does, the Son does likewise. The Father loves the Son and shows him all that he himself is doing; and he will show him greater works than these, so that you will be astonished. Indeed, just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whomever he wishes. The Father judges no one but has given all judgment to the Son, so that all may honour the Son just as they honour the Father. Anyone who does not honour the Son does not honour the Father who sent him. Very truly, I tell you, anyone who hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life, and does not come under judgment, but has passed from death to life. "Very truly, I tell you, the hour is coming, and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live.

Giving to the church

Thank you very much to those who continue to give regularly to the church. If you haven't committed to regular giving, why not consider joining the Parish Giving Scheme or setting up a standing order? Details from Paul Naish, email sjtgiftaid@gmail.com tel 01747 870731 07587 072900. Our income dropped significantly during lockdown, while expenses continued; any donations would be very welcome.
