In memoriam

We were sorry to hear of the death of Pat Rockell on Thursday morning. Pat did not live in Tisbury for very long, but she contributed to the life of the church in various ways, including as a volunteer in the Parish Office. Her funeral will be at St John's on Thursday 24th June at 11.30am. If you would like to attend, please let the Parish Administrator know in advance, so that we can ensure that we do not exceed safe capacity.

For your prayers

Please pray for the G7 meetings this week and the summit taking place in Cornwall from 11th-13th June, asking that decisions will be made that will benefit the whole world.

In our linked diocese of Cueibet, South Sudan, we are asked to pray for the UN peacekeeping force and the World Food Programme throughout South Sudan.

The Collect for the First Sunday after Trinity

O God, the strength of all those who put their trust in you, mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace, that in the keeping of your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Gospel: Mark 3. 20-21, 31-35

The crowd came together again, so that they could not even eat. When Jesus' family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, "He has gone out of his mind."

Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, "Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you." And he replied, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking at those who sat around him, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

Ordination of the Revd Leila Mather to the Priesthood

Leila will be ordained Priest at Salisbury Cathedral on Saturday 26th June. Please do take a card from the north entrance of the church, and pray for Leila as she prepares for her ordination.
