For your prayers

We pray for the victims of the shootings in Plymouth, for those injured and for those who have lost loved ones.

Please continue to pray for all refugees, asking that they would be treated with compassion in their host countries. We continue also to pray for the victims of floods and wildfires in Europe, Australia and North America.

In our linked diocese of Cueibet, South Sudan, we are asked to pray for girls and young women in the diocese, that they may be able to play a full part in their community.

Sponsored Walk

To date we have received over £600 in sponsorship and donations, with Gift Aid to be claimed on some of this. Thank you very much to those who walked, those who sponsored a walker and those who donated. Thank you, too, to Jo and to David, who organised the walks, and to all who helped in any way. We will, of course, let you have the final total raised once all contributions have been received. It's not too late to donate (via the Parish Administrator).

The Collect for the Blessed Virgin Mary

Almighty God, who looked upon the lowliness of the Blessed Virgin Mary and chose her to be the mother of your only Son: grant that we who are redeemed by his blood may share with her in the glory of your eternal kingdom; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Reading: Isaiah 61.10,11

I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my whole being shall exult in my God;
for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation, he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

For as the earth brings forth its shoots, and as a garden causes what is sown in it to spring up, so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations.

The Gospel: Luke 1.46–55

And Mary said,

‘My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour, for he has looked with favour on the lowliness of his servant.

Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed;
for the Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is his name.

His mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation.

He has shown strength with his arm; he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.

He has brought down the powerful from their thrones, and lifted up the lowly;
he has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty.

He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy, according to the promise he made to our ancestors, to Abraham and to his descendants for ever.’

Can you help?

We would love to have more volunteers (including chaps!) to help with refreshments after the 9.30 service. This would be approx. once a month. Do contact Trish if you are interested: 01747 871108 or billandtrish9@gmail.com

Children’s Holiday Workshop

The Earth, Wind and Fire Children’s Workshop run by the Nadder Valley Team on Thursday in St John’s Churchyard was an enjoyable morning for 24 children joined by a parent or grandparents. Revd Elaine told the story of the Healing by Jesus of Blind Bartimaeus and Revd Jo led us all in songs. The children painted pebbles, made model bees, created fire streamer sticks and spirals on the theme. We all had BBQ sausages for lunch and a fun time was had by all. A big thankyou to all who worked so hard to make this happen.

Giving to the church

Thank you very much to those who continue to give regularly to the church. If you haven’t committed to regular giving, why not consider joining the Parish Giving Scheme? If you go to www.parishgiving.org.uk you can get onto the secure website and set up a login and password. This will enable you set up your own direct debit (and sign up for gift aid if applicable). If you require help or advice on giving, please contact Paul Naish, email sjtgiftaid@gmail.com tel 01747 870731. Cheques are payable to Tisbury PCC.

FROM SALISBURY DIOCESAN BOARD OF EDUCATION (DBE)

New Trustees – may God be calling you to this role?

As we move into a new Triennium in the autumn the Trust Board of the Diocesan Board of Education will be joined by up to five new trustees. Might you be called by God to serve Him in this way?

We have an exciting three years ahead working with schools, academies and, importantly, multi-academy trusts to shape our service to meet their needs. We will be working to help every church school fulfil their deeply Christian vision; schools at the heart of the parish communities to which they belong. If you would like to learn more about serving God and the children and young people of our diocese, please click on this link:
