For your prayers

Please pray for Douglas, baptised this morning, for his parents and godparents, and for all the family.

We pray for the Generous Giving campaign in this church and throughout the diocese. We ask that this will be a fruitful time of reflection on God's generosity to us and our response to him. We pray for the finances of our church and of our diocese.

In our linked diocese of Cueibet, South Sudan, we are asked to pray for the Cueibet pastors and other families who grow crops as a result of help they have received.

The Revd Juliette Hulme, Team Vicar

The Collect for the Sixteenth Sunday after Trinity

O Lord, we beseech you mercifully to hear the prayers of your people who call upon you; and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil them; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The New Testament Reading: Ephesians 3: 14-21

For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name. I pray that, according to the riches of his glory, he may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit, and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love. I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Gospel: John 6: 5-14

When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming towards him, Jesus said to Philip, 'Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?' He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, 'Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little.' One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, 'There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?' Jesus said, 'Make the people sit down.' Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all. Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, 'Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost.' So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets. When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, 'This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world.'

Generous Giving

As we continue engaging with the Generous Giving campaign, this week we reflect on God's generosity. Where will you see God's extravagant abundance, generosity and grace in action this week? Don't forget to check out the activity ideas in your campaign guide. There are things to try on your own or with others starting from just 15 mins, so everyone can easily get involved.

The Tisbury Cook Book

As part of our stewardship campaign, it is intended to produce a Tisbury Cook Book. For it to be a success we shall need contributions from the whole of the community. Those with a delicious recipe that they are prepared to share are invited to send their contribution to the Parish Office, preferably by e-mail: tisburyparishchurch@gmail.com (although written contributions are also welcome) and to encourage friends to do likewise. For further details, including format, please see the following page.

Can you help in the Churchyard?

- The Holy Mowers, who do a wonderful job keeping our Churchyard neat and tidy, are looking for a volunteer to help with strimming and generally looking after the Garden of Remembrance. If you can help, please contact Anthony Lovell-Wood: woodringer@btinternet.com or 01747 871121.
- Churchyard tidy-up Saturday 2nd October 10am-12noon. Do come along if you can spare a couple of hours to help with the annual tidying of the Churchyard (mowing, strimming, weeding, etc). Your help would be greatly appreciated.

Help for refugees

Colin Brady, the Diocese of Salisbury's Social Justice Programme Manager, has produced a briefing which may be of interest to those wishing to support refugees from Afghanistan <https://tinyurl.com/34nubt3v>

Thank you

... to John Dalton and others who took part in 'Ride and Stride' last weekend, in aid of our church and Wiltshire Historic Churches. If you would like to donate, do offer to sponsor John retrospectively!

Riders and striders from several churches, local and not so local, enjoyed the refreshments provided at St John's on the day.

TISBURY COOK BOOK

Please send your contribution to the Church Office, preferably by e-mail: tisburyparishchurch@gmail.com (although written contributions are also welcome) in the format shown below:

Ingredients

175 g poisoned entrails
250g toad
300 ml sweltered venom stock
100 g fenny snake, filtered
1 tablespoon eye of newt
1 teaspoon tongue of dog
1 small root of hemlock
Seasoning to taste

Method

1. Swelter toad under stone for thirty-one days
2. Bring stock to boil
3. Add entrails, toad, snake and stir until well bubbling and gruel is thick
4. Liquidise
5. Serve, like Revenge, either hot or cold

Serve with

Bottle of Baboon's Blood

Notes

From William Shakespeare, Macbeth. Ideal for a BBQ on a blasted heath.

It is hoped that most of the ingredients, including wine, might be sourced from local shops, farms or other outlets. However delicious a recipe might be, contributors are asked not to copy them from existing published works due to copyright considerations.
