The Collect for Accession Day

Almighty God, the fountain of all goodness, bless our Sovereign Lady, Queen Elizabeth, and all who are in authority under her; that they may order all things in wisdom and equity, righteousness and peace, to the honour and glory of your name and the good of your Church and people; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Reading: Luke 5.1-11

One day Jesus was standing on the shore of Lake Gennesaret while the people pushed their way up to him to listen to the word of God. He saw two boats pulled up on the beach; the fishermen had left them and were washing the nets. Jesus got into one of the boats - it belonged to Simon - and asked him to push off a little from the shore. Jesus sat in the boat and taught the crowd.

When he finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Push the boat out further to the deep water, and you and your partners let down your nets for a catch."

'Master,' Simon answered, 'we worked hard all night long and caught nothing. But if you say so, I will let down the nets.' They let them down and caught such a large number of fish that the nets were about to break. So they motioned to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. They came and filled both boats so full of fish that the boats were about to sink. When Simon Peter saw what had happened, he fell on his knees before Jesus and said, 'Go away from me, Lord! I am a sinful man!'

He and the others with him were all amazed at the large number of fish they had caught. The same was true of Simon's partners, James and John, the sons of Zebedee. Jesus said to Simon, 'Don't be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.'

They pulled the boats up on the beach, left everything, and followed Jesus.

For your prayers

In our linked diocese of Cueibet, South Sudan, we are asked to pray for the role of the police and army in the diocese, and for those members of the Church employed by them.

We give thanks for our Queen and her long and faithful service. We pray that God will keep her in good health during her Platinum Jubilee year. We also pray for Prince Charles and the Duchess of Cornwall, Prince William and the Duchess of Cambridge, and all the Royal Family at this historic time.

Not to be missed!

Two events on Saturday 19th February

11.30am      Talk on the Gospel according to St John      Tisbury Methodist Church

Tisbury Christian Council invites you the fourth and final talk by the distinguished Bible translator Fr Nicholas King SJ, this one on the Gospel according to St John. If you have been to any of the previous talks, you will know that Fr Nicholas is an engaging speaker who has the gift of imparting his own extensive knowledge in a way which is accessible to all.

The talk will be preceded by coffee at 11.00am. All are very welcome!

There will be a basket for donations to cover expenses.

Arrangements are subject to Covid regulations – check with Fr Robert 01747 870228

6.30pm-10.30pm      Family Quiz Night in aid of Salisbury Hospice      Hinton Hall
