

St John the Baptist Church, Tisbury

reflecting Jesus Christ

Sunday 13th November 2022 The Second Sunday before Advent Remembrance Sunday

Today's services

9.30am Parish Communion for the Second Sunday before Advent

President and Preacher: The Revd Juliette Hulme

Setting: Mass of St Thomas David Thorne.

Hymns: 234 Christ whose glory fills the skies; 480 In Christ there is no East or West; 271 Alleluya, sing to Jesus

During Communion: Bread of the world in mercy broken Anthony Baldwin

Final hymn: 206 Christ is our cornerstone

The Communion rail is now in place. This Sunday we revert to the traditional practice of kneeling (or standing) at the rail to receive Communion. Those sitting at the front of the church are invited to come up first. If you do not wish to receive from the chalice, please cross your hands across your chest after receiving the wafer, and remain at the rail until the chalice has passed you. Please do not dip your wafer into the wine.

The Revd Juliette Hulme is also leading the Remembrance service at Fonthill Gifford at 10.55 this morning

2.45pm Wreath Laying at the War Memorial

3.00pm Remembrance Service in St John's Church

Led by the Revd Juliette Hulme Preacher: Melanie Hlland (Tisbury Methodist Church)

Hymns: 417 O God our help in ages past; 333 All my hope on God is founded; 239 Lord of all hopefulness;

485 Thy hand, O God, has guided Anthem: Greater Love Ireland

Organ Voluntary: The Spitfire Prelude William Walton

For your prayers

In our linked diocese of Cueibet, South Sudan, we are asked to pray this week for the ongoing development of those pastors trained with the help of Chalke Deanery.

On Remembrance Sunday we pray for all war veterans in our nation and for the work of the RBL and Help for Heroes.

We pray for all prisoners of war and refugees from war torn countries.

Please pray for the COP27 Summit, in these or other words:

Creator God, inspire world leaders at COP27, with openness to listen to those most affected by climate change and with courage to act urgently and wisely, so that our common home may be healed and restored, and all people, and generations to come, may delight in it.

Parish Communion

The Collect for the Second Sunday before Advent

Heavenly Father, whose blessed Son was revealed to destroy the works of the devil and to make us the children of God and heirs of eternal life: grant that we, having this hope, may purify ourselves even as he is pure; that when he shall appear in power and great glory we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Old Testament Reading: Malachi 4.1-2a

See, the day is coming, burning like an oven, when all the arrogant and all evildoers will be stubble; the day that comes shall burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. But for you who revere my name the sun of righteousness shall rise, with healing in its wings. You shall go out leaping like calves from the stall.

The Gospel: Luke 21.5-19

When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, he said, 'As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down.'

They asked him, 'Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?' And he said, 'Beware that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name and say, "I am he!" and, "The time is near!" Do not go after them.

'When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately.' Then he said to them, 'Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and plagues; and there will be dreadful portents and great signs from heaven.

'But before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name. This will give you an opportunity to testify. So make up your minds not to prepare your defence in advance; for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, by relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your souls.

Remembrance

The Reading: John 15. 9-17

As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

'This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.

News of 'our' Ordinand

We are delighted to hear that Rebecca McDonnell will serve her curacy in the benefice of Sherborne with Castleton, Lillington and Longburton. Details of her ordination next summer will be published once finalised.

Food Bank Donations

You may have noticed that there is a box near the tills in the Tisbury Co-op for donations of food for the Salisbury Food Bank. It is very much hoped that those of us who are able will get into the habit of putting something into the box when we do our shopping. Any contributions would be very gratefully received.

Christmas Fair

Saturday 26th November

Hinton Hall

Please could you help by donating items such as gifts for the gift stall, paperback books, jams, chutneys, mincemeat, cakes, home-made mince pies, and so on.

There will be lots of stalls, a raffle with some great prizes, and tea/coffee and cake, so do spread the word and join us on the day!
