For your prayers

In our linked diocese of Cueibet, South Sudan, we are asked this week to pray for the work of UNHCR and the World Food Programme in South Sudan.

As the conflict continues in Sudan and in Ukraine, we pray for peace negotiations there and in other troubled parts of the world.

We pray for God's blessing on the Archbishop of Canterbury's mission to our Diocese next weekend.

We continue to pray for those preparing for our coming by-election and for both candidates.

The Collect for Trinity Sunday

Holy God, faithful and unchanging: enlarge our minds with the knowledge of your truth, and draw us more deeply into the mystery of your love, that we may truly worship you, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Reading: Matthew 28.16-20

The eleven disciples went to the hill in Galilee where Jesus had told them to go. When they saw him, they worshiped him, even though some of them doubted. Jesus drew near and said to them, "I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth. Go, then, to all peoples everywhere and make them my disciples: baptize them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, and teach them to obey everything I have commanded you. And I will be with you always, to the end of the age."

Hymns

Hymn 146: Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty

Spirit of God, unseen as the wind

*Spirit of God, unseen as the wind,
gentle as is the dove:
teach us the truth and help us believe,
show us the Saviour's love!*

1. You spoke to us - long, long ago -
gave us the written word;
we read it still, needing its truth,
through it God's voice is heard.

2. Without your help we fail our Lord,
we cannot live his way;
we need your power,
we need your strength,
following Christ each day.

Spirit of the Living God

Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on me,
Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on me.
Break me, melt me, mould me, fill me.
Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on me.
