The Collect for the Eighth Sunday after Trinity

Almighty Lord and everlasting God, we beseech you to direct, sanctify and govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of your laws and the works of your commandments; that through your most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Old Testament Reading: Jeremiah 23.1-6

Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the LORD. Therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the LORD. Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the LORD.

The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: 'The LORD is our righteousness.'

The Gospel: Mark 6.30-34, 53-56

The apostles returned from their mission. They gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, 'Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while.' For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored the boat. When they got out of the boat, people at once recognized him, and rushed about that whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. And wherever he went, into villages or cities or farms, they laid the sick in the market-places, and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

For your prayers

In our linked diocese of Cuebiet, South Sudan, we are asked to pray this month for the Mission Aid Fellowship's work in South Sudan. We pray too that clean water be available for all and for an end to water-borne disease in the Diocese.

We pray for the leaders of the nations, that they will govern with wisdom and integrity. We pray for those parts of the world where there is conflict, asking that those in power will enter into negotiations to bring peace and stability. We pray for those countries preparing for elections, that the process will be fair and peaceful. We pray for our own government, for those newly in office and for those who continue to serve.

As school holidays begin, we pray for all going on holiday in the next few weeks, overseas or in this country, for safe travel and for rest and relaxation.

The Revd Juliette Hulme – for those who missed last week's notice

It's lovely to have Juliette back, initially on a part-time basis, after her period of sick leave.

After prayerful consideration, and consultation with the Bishop, Juliette has decided to retire from full-time ministry. Her resignation date will be 31st October this year, and her last service will be on Sunday 29th September, the Feast of St Michael and All Angels. This date will also be the thirtieth anniversary of her ordination.

Please pray for Juliette as she prepares for this significant milestone.

A letter from Juliette is available in church for you to pick up.
