We stop at each of these for a reading, a short prayer and a song, finishing at the Rectory, Park Road, for refreshments in the garden. There will be an activity sheet for the children to complete as we go, and small prizes at the end. Do join us either for the whole walkabout or for any part of it. We start at the church at 9.30am and the route will go via Stubbles, the railway station, The Square, the fire station and Tisbury Surgery. Or you would be very welcome simply to join us at the Rectory for refreshments at about 10.30am.

We also pray for all Church leaders that they are able to teach them the way of Christ.

We pray for calm in our cities and for an end to rioting; and for protection for our police and our communities. We give thanks for all our emergency services.

We pray for all the families and friends traumatised by the stabbing of the young girls in Southport. We pray for the community of Southport and for the bereaved families.

The Collect for the Tenth Sunday after Trinity

Let your merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of your humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions make them to ask such things as shall please you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Readings for the Walkabout Service

At the Church: Isaiah 55.12-13

For you shall go out in joy,
and be led back in peace;
the mountains and the hills before you shall burst into song,
and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.
Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress;
instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle;
and it shall be to the Lord for a memorial,
for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

At the River: Deuteronomy 8.7-11

For the Lord your God is bringing you into a good land, a land with flowing streams, with springs and underground waters welling up in valleys and hills, a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive trees and honey, a land where you may eat bread without scarcity, where you will lack nothing, a land whose stones are iron and from whose hills you may mine copper. You shall eat your fill and bless the Lord your God for the good land that he has given you.

Take care that you do not forget the Lord your God, by failing to keep his commandments, his ordinances, and his statutes, which I am commanding you today.

At the Railway Station: Psalm 121

I lift up my eyes to the hills; from where is my help to come?
My help comes from the Lord, the maker of heaven and earth.
He will not suffer your foot to stumble; he who watches over you will not sleep.
Behold, he who keeps watch over Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.
The Lord himself watches over you; the Lord is your shade at your right hand,
So that the sun shall not strike you by day, neither the moon by night.
The Lord shall keep you from all evil; it is he who shall keep your soul.
The Lord shall keep watch over your going out and your coming in, from this time forth for evermore.

At The Square: Matthew 9.35-38

Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.'

At the Surgery: Matthew 4.23

Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people.
